

Cash Management Financial Seminar

February 20, 2013

- In today's hard economic times, are you finding it hard to budget your finances? Are your credit cards piling up? Is putting money in your savings account just a dream? Well, we have just the right answers to help you.
- SASI (Support All Staff Involvement) hosted a Cash Management Financial Seminar with special guest speaker Kelly Torresin, financial advisor from Valic. This workshop was held on Wednesday, February 20, from 9:30-11:00 in Cape Florida 316AB. All USPS, and faculty/A&P staff members were welcome to join this workshop.
- The Cash Management Seminar was ideal for those just getting started as well as for individuals who may benefit from ideas on how to better manage their day-to-day financial resources.
Topics covered included:
 - How to assess your current financial situation
 - Budgeting tips
 - Setting up an emergency fund
 - Managing credit cards
 - Steps to increased savings

