

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

In-State Tuition

Q: I am from Puerto Rico, but I am also already receiving a non-resident waiver. Will my tuition change?

A: No. Because you are already paying in-state tuition, no adjustment is necessary.

Q: If I am eligible to receive this benefit, will it continue through the remainder of my enrollment at UCF?

A: No. This is a temporary change to allow students impacted by Hurricane Maria to continue their education during this recovery phase. The change is temporary.

Q: My family lives in Puerto Rico. Do I need to request to have my records reviewed? Do I have to provide documentation?

A: No. We will review records we have on file and we do not require additional documentation from you at this time. The university will contact you if additional information is needed.

Q: I am originally from Puerto Rico. However, my home of residence is in another state (not Puerto Rico). Do I qualify for in-state tuition?

A: No. You are not eligible for temporary in-state tuition.

Q: How long will it take for my residency to be updated?

A: Please allow the university two weeks to review and update records. You will be notified via email to your Knightsmail account.

Q: If I have questions, is there an office I may call?

A: Yes. You may call the Registrar's Office at 407.823.5510. Please note that it may take up to two weeks for your records to be reviewed and your account to be updated.
